ABOUT LEAGUE CULTURAL DIPLOMACY

League Cultural Diplomacy (LCD) is an international event management and consulting agency that specialises in cultural engagement and cultural diplomacy. We help our clients build relationships, trust and influence abroad or across cultures through cultural events and other creative initiatives. Based in South East Asia, we are an Australian registered business with the ability to deliver our services globally.

SERVICES TO GOVERNMENT

Using culture based techniques we help our government clients to develop healthy, vibrant and prosperous communities, build international trade, attract international tourists and students, encourage Foreign Direct Investment and heighten levels of international engagement. We do this through our event management, consulting and training services. Our staff have worked with numerous local, state and federal government agencies in Australia and the UK and are experienced in working with minority groups.
